vs.

REBECCA MAHONEY,

Magistrate Judge Michael J. Newman

Defendant.

ORDER AND JUDGMENT

This misdemeanor criminal case is before the Court on Probation's request to modify the conditions or term of supervision. Defendant submits a written waiver of a hearing in that regard. The Court held a status conference by telephone on July 12, 2016. Special Assistant United States Attorney Juli McCammon participated on behalf of the government. Attorney Larry Greger participated on behalf of Defendant. Kristin Keyer participated on behalf of Probation. Defendant, with the Court's approval, waived, in writing, her appearance at any proceeding in this case, including sentencing proceedings. See doc. 9, 10. Accordingly, the Court proceeded in her absence.

With the consent of counsel and Defendant, the Court REVOKES the term of prejudgment probation entered against Defendant as to Count 1 of the Information. Having considered all sentencing factors in 18 U.S.C. § 3355, the Court IMPOSES a one (1) year term of probation upon Defendant as to Count 1 of the Information to commence upon the entry of this Order and Judgment. Supervision shall occur in Colorado, where Defendant resides; this Court will retain jurisdiction over this case. If appropriate, the parties and/or Probation may move to reduce or terminate this term of probation upon Defendant's successful completion of her probation term on Count 2 of the Information, which is now ongoing.

With regard to the sentence and probation term imposed by this Order and Judgment, Defendant is advised that she has fourteen (14) days in which to file an appeal, if any.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
